To Whom It May Concern

Re: Pastor Ben Gray

This is to certify that I have known the above named for approximately twenty years in his various capacities as pastor, prayer leader, publisher and friend.

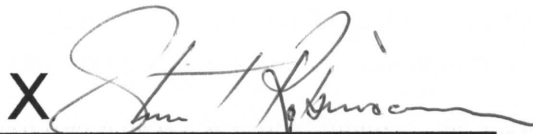

As a pastor he has a proven track record of faithfulness, high loyalty and integrity.

As a prayer leader he is visionary, persistent and practical.

As a publisher of most of my books I have found him to be practical, co-operative, helpful and very generous compared to others in this specialised field.

As a friend he is a worthy companion for the journey of life.

I highly commend Pastor Ben for whatever ministry occasion you might be considering which would fit within his significant range of gifting and experience.
