

Ben F. Gray

I have known Ben F. Gray for thirty years, having first met him at an international prayer conference in Seoul, South Korea in 1993. Since that time, we have fellowshipped together and corresponded regularly, and been in each other's homes.

I regard him as a person of stature and apostolic leadership abilities in relation to prayer, the market place, and the nations. He has a passion for the transformation of nations.

I have known him as the Founder and significant leader of the Australian Prayer Network and leader of the movement of prayer across Oceania. He has also been at the forefront of the Reconciliation ministry to do with the two World Wars, flowing from Australia into South East Asia and Turkey, including the Gallipoli landings. He has led strategic prayer teams to many nations in the 10/40 Window, the Middle East and the five nations across North Africa.

Ben has been a person, I and many others, would turn to first for advice and wisdom, and for a specifically Australian viewpoint on international affairs. He is an undoubted leader of leaders.

Many of the initiatives and projects God has led him into have also been a mirror of my own calling, which has been an incredible litmus test that we are walking in the counsel of the Lord.
